

Come all ye young sailors that follow the sea,
way hey, blow the man down,
please pay attention and listen to me,
Give me some time to blow the man down.

We're sailing on Caroline, a World War I ship,
way hey, blow the man down,
Our uniform's ready, prepared for the trip,
Give me some time to blow the man down.

There's Blucher the rabbit and cats Tom and Puff,
way hey, blow the man down,
Crooke is our Captain, he's made of great stuff,
Give me some time to blow the man down.

We work hard on drills but then when we're done,
way hey, blow the man down,
We sing and play football and boxing for fun,
Give me some time to blow the man down.

We're away from our home, miss our families a lot,
way hey, blow the man down,
We keep photos of them in our ditty box,
Give me some time to blow the man down.

Come all ye young sailors that follow the sea ,
way hey, blow the man down,
please pay attention and listen to me,
Give me some time to blow the man down.
