

SEA ART TRAIL

Be on the LOOK out!
Keep your EYES open

Hello! I have hopped into an artefact in the Nelson Gallery.

- Find Where am I?
In the _____
- Can you guess my name?
Write your suggestion here...

Can you find the
NAUTILUS SHELL?

Where is it?

In the _____

Look at how the shell shines.

It is PEARLESCENT!

Can you make this drawing of the Shell sparkle?

SEA ART TRAIL

Go to the back of the Nelson Gallery.

Look carefully at the embroidery on Emma Hamilton's dress.

Try sketching a part of the embroidery here.

Can you redesign her dress by adding some of your own decoration?

Find Nelson's Visiting Card.

Now design one for yourself. Don't forget a colourful border!

SEA ART TRAIL

Find the display of medals in the Sailing Navy gallery.

Award someone special a medal and colour the ribbon for them.

This medal has been awarded to.....

.....

.....

because

.....

.....

Shiver my timbers!

Timber is used to make boats.

Can you find the bits of old timber in the Victory Gallery?

They have an interesting TEXTURE.

- What is the TEXTURE?
- Can you think of some words to describe how the TIMBER feels

SEA ART TRAIL

We are the figureheads!

Can you find out which ship we belonged to?
Draw a squiggly line from our faces to the correct ship...

HMS
GRAMPUS

HMS CARNATIC

HMS
ASIA

HMS ESPIEGLE

You are the Captain of a ship!

Write the name of your ship here.

Design a figurehead for your ship in this box.
Remember it has to SYMBOLIZE the name!

SEA ART TRAIL

Pattern Spotter!

Fill these boxes with patterns you find in the galleries.

Why not try some more sea inspired art at home?

You could make a hat like Nelson's, a papier mache sword or your own snip book like this one in the Nelson Gallery!

Have fun!